

Rathbun Brothers & Ramey Vineyard Dinner to Benefit High Museum Wine Auction
For immediate release

ATLANTA, GA., January 23, 2006: Kevin and Kent Rathbun will be hosting the first "Rathbun Brother's Wine Dinner" on March 5th, 2006 that will feature wines by David Ramey of Ramey Wine Cellars and will benefit the High Museum Wine Auction. The dinner starts at 6:30 pm and will be located at Rathbun's Restaurant in Atlanta. Cost is $250.00 per person.

Kevin's brother, Kent, has two successful restaurants in Dallas, Abacus and Jaspers. This will be the first time that Kevin and Kent will be cooking side by side at Kevin's Restaurant, Rathbun's.

Winemaker David Ramey, and Sales Director David Fisher of Ramey Vineyards in Healdsburg, California will be donating their time and their award winning wines for the dinner. David Ramey started his career in wine with little more than a degree in enology and a dream. Then, after nearly two decades of creating benchmark wines for such California wineries as Matanzas Creek, Chalk Hill, Dominus and Rudd, David Ramey and his wife Carla founded Ramey Wine Cellars in 1996. "Owning one's own winery is the dream of every winemaker,"

Kevin & Kent Rathbun has a similar background where they worked for great restaurants for years and then realized the dream of opening their own.

The dinner will begin with a reception and then into a multi-course seated dinner.

To make reservations, please visit <http://www.atlanta-wineauction.org/> or call the Wine Auction hotline at 404-733-5335.

All proceeds benefit the High Museum of Art.

###